WHAT: "THE 2010 WASHINGTON AUTO SHOW: Change Happens Here," produced by the Washington Area New Automobile Dealers Association (WANADA)

The "Public Policy" show. The "Green Car" show. The largest public show in Washington. And now, The Washington Auto Show® is home to the "Advanced Technology SuperHighway," a 65,000-square-foot display housing the latest automotive innovations in safety and sustainability from clean diesel to electric batteries.

The Washington Auto Show appeals to a massive, diverse and affluent audience with its showcase of stars and cars. The show features guest appearances by reality and sports stars, including Latino and Asian celebrities, and beloved children's T.V. characters plus contests and giveaways of more than half a dozen cars!

Look for the display of more than 700 new cars by over 42 domestic and import manufacturers offering a showcase of cars, trucks, mini-vans, sport utility vehicles and a range of fuel-efficient vehicles. The show fills the 750,000 square-foot space with two-levels of state-of-the-art exhibits.
